Regarding participation in the 40th Edition of the “Lauro d’Oro International Poetry and Prose Prize in Ligurian Dialects”, the undersigned hereby declares and signs the following:

1. Originality of the work and ownership of rights

The undersigned declares, under their own personal responsibility, that the submitted works are the result of their own personal creativity, are unpublished, and that they hold full and exclusive ownership of the copyright, both moral and financial. The undersigned indemnifies the Prize Organization against any liability, loss, damage, or claim brought by third parties regarding the authorship or rights of the works themselves.

2. Assignment of publication and disclosure rights

Pursuant to Law No. 633 of April 22, 1941 (Protection of copyright and other rights related to its exercise), the undersigned assigns, free of charge, to the Contest Organization the right to publish, reproduce, distribute, and disclose the submitted works (or parts thereof) by any current or future technological means or medium. In particular, this authorization includes, but is not limited to:

- Distribution both in Italy and abroad.

It is understood that this assignment does not preclude the author's ownership of the moral copyright: the Organization undertakes to always credit the author's name upon every use or publication of the work. The assignment is entirely free of charge, and the author waives any financial claims, rights of recourse, or royalties.
